HUNDREDS OF NEIGHBORS BACK BONIN FOR RE-ELECTION

Mike Bonin Announces Early Support From More Than 700 Grassroots Community Leaders and Residents Throughout Westside

LOS ANGELES - In an early demonstration of his widespread support throughout every neighborhood on the Westside, Mike Bonin today announced that more than 700 community leaders and residents in the 11th Council District have endorsed his campaign for re-election.

The remarkable grassroots support, which comes five months before next year's municipal primary election, includes neighbors, community activists, small business owners, neighborhood council leaders, and people who have worked with Bonin to improve the Westside. Supporters praised his accessibility, hands-on approach, smart and creative thinking, and relentless drive to tackle tough problems.

"I'm thrilled to support Mike because he has been incredibly responsive and has brought City Hall to the Westside," said Sherri Akers, who serves on the Mar Vista Community Council and is a grassroots environmental activist. "His pop-up office hours and creative events like 'Hike with Mike' let people speak with him directly without needing to go downtown. Mike's approach to government is collaborative, responsive and empowering; and it focuses on getting things done for his constituents. I am proud to be one of many neighbors who are very excited about a future where we continue to work with Mike to put neighborhoods first on the Westside."

Endorsers noted how Bonin frequently joins and works alongside City work crews to resurface neighborhood streets, install new crosswalks, and clean out clogged storm drains.

"No issue seems too big, or too small, for Mike to roll up his sleeves and get to
